

Deccan Herald
Bangalore, Friday, January 14, 2005

Sporting way to success

BANGALORE, DHNS: Thursday was a day of revelation for the underprivileged children of Parikrma Foundation. Personalities including Ashwini Nachappa, Reeth Abraham and Charu Sharma regaled their tales of success along with a crash-course on marathon to the children.

Ashwini Nachappa, who has been championing the cause of underprivileged children for several years, said that such interactions between students and successful individuals will spur them to set goals and model themselves after such personalities.

Fielding questions from eight-year-olds about 'What is a marathon?' to running along with the children on the playground, the celebrities seemed to enjoy as much as the children. The event was a prelude to the Mumbai Marathon to be held on January 16. Contact Parikrma lit.23635225.